Groovin' Metal: ♩ = 115

Drum notation for "Stars" by Ray Luzier, featuring a 4/4 time signature and a tempo of 115 beats per minute. The notation is written on a single staff with a key signature of one sharp (F#). The piece begins with a mf (mezzo-forte) dynamic. The notation includes various drum symbols: a cross (x) for a snare drum, a circle (o) for a hi-hat, and a triangle (Δ) for a cymbal. The notation is organized into measures, with some measures containing multiple notes. The piece includes a double bar line with repeat dots, indicating a repeat section. The notation ends with a f (forte) dynamic. The notation is written on a single staff with a key signature of one sharp (F#).

The image displays eight staves of musical notation, likely for guitar. Each staff begins with a double bar line and a key signature of one sharp (F#). The notation is complex, featuring a variety of rhythmic patterns, including eighth and sixteenth notes, and rests. Above the staves, there are numerous performance markings, including accents (>) and breath marks (^). The music is written in a style that suggests a specific guitar technique, possibly tapping or a specific strumming pattern, given the repeated 'x' marks on the strings. The notation is arranged in a single system, with each staff representing a different part of the piece. The overall style is that of a professional musical score, with clear notation and a focus on rhythm and melody.
